

Co-designed with the sexual violence, women's health and domestic violence sector.

Information sessions

Collaborative workforce Grants

Date: 22 & 26 October

Scholarships Program

Date: 30 November

Join us to find out about these great opportunities to connect and grow the workforce through grants and scholarships.

Supporting children & young people in the gendered violence context

Date 28 October & 9 November

This workshop explores the importance of keeping children and young people visible and respecting their rights and needs as responses are delivered that impact on their lives.

Conflict Intelligence

Date: 4 November

Join us to gain insight into your relationship with conflict – including your conflict identity and conflict approach.

In this leaderships masterclass we will explore the Conflict Intelligence Model and how it can be used to recognise and confidently manage conflict.

Difficult Conversations in the Workplace

Date: 16 November

Engaging in challenging conversations are an aspect of leadership that many find difficult. This leadership masterclass will build understanding, skills and confidence to approach these conversations in a timely and effective manner.

SPARK: Mothers & Children with Disability

Date: 24 November

This webinar will discuss research and good practice in relation to working with mothers and children with disability in the gendered violence context. Join us to hear about and discuss specific risk factors of this population and the benefits of applying principles of positive practice to your work.

Mindful Leadership

Date: 26 November

Mindful leadership is recognised as having the most significant and positive impact not only on workplace wellbeing, creativity + team culture, but also on productivity and the 'bottom line'. Join us for this one-day workshop to learn what this means for you in terms of your leadership practice.

Responding to High Risk DFV Cases

Dates: Starting 5 November

This workshop will provide an overview of non-lethal strangulation, sexual violence, separation and stalking within violent relationships. Participants will gain understanding of how these tactics used by perpetrators operate within an overarching framework of coercive control.

Creative Approaches for Sexual Assault Work with Children & Young People

Dates: Starting 1 December

This series will provide participants with an understanding of trauma-informed Expressive Therapy as it applies to the practice of trauma intervention using creative methods with children and young people.

SPARK: Intersectionality

Date: 10 December

We invite you to join us to explore intersectionality in the gendered violence context. The session will provide an overview of intersectionality, share historical and theoretical underpinnings and the benefits of applying the principles of intersectionality to practice.

Upcoming 2020 - 2021

- Supporting remote teams
- Trauma informed practice and leadership
- Community development approaches
- Workforce planning
- Collaboration
- Leadership mentoring program
- Understanding intersectionality
- Inclusive practice
- Transdisciplinary practice
- Case notes and the law
- Rape law reform
- Foundations for working with women
- Behaviour change programs
- Information sharing guidelines
- Professional practice supervision – men's behaviour change workers
- SPARK webinars – various topics

For more information, to register and to see a complete list of professional development priorities for 2020/21 visit

<https://workupqld.org.au/professional-development/>

To provide feedback on your professional development needs or scheduling preferences please email workforce@healingfoundation.org.au

 Indicates Region

CQ – Central Queensland M – Moreton NQ – Northern Queensland
SE – South East SW – South West  – Online